

Psychology

Career Pathways

School of Humanities and Social Sciences

Overview:

The Psychology major helps students develop a detailed, integrated, and science-based understanding of behavior, including mental processes. As a student in this major, you will learn how to apply this understanding to have a positive impact on the lives of others.

Acquired Skills MOST Valued by Employers

- | | |
|---|-----------------------------------|
| • Competency with Major Psychological Theories and Concepts | • & U L W L F D O 7 K L Q N L Q J |
| • Analyze Statistics and Interpret Results | • (T X L W \ , Q F O X V L R Q |
| • Utilize Counseling Theory and Skills to Help Others | • Leadership |
| • C D U H H U 6 H Ø H Q W H O R S | • Professionalism |
| • Communication | • 7 H D P U Z R |
| | • 7 H F K Q R O R J |
-

Common Pathways:

- | | |
|------------------------------|----------------------------|
| • Personnel assistant | • Rehabilitation counselor |
| • CleC | • Career counselor |
| • Probation officer | • Social worker |
| • Child care worker | • School counselor |
| • Activities coordinator | • Human Resource |
| • Social services caseworker | • Behavior technician |
| • Psychologist | • Community counseling |
| • Occupational therapist | |

Internship Sites for Stevenson Students:

-